Client profile

Buy • 490000–895000 EUR purchase

A couple looking to buy an apartment in Brussels, with a budget of 490000–895000 EUR. Priorities include cafes, expat community, and value for money.

Must-have

- Minimum 1 bedroom apartment
- Access to public transportation
- Proximity to expat community
- Nearby cafes and brunch spots

Nice-to-have

- Balcony or outdoor space
- Modern kitchen facilities
- Parking availability
- Proximity to parks

Red flags

- High property taxes in certain areas
- Limited inventory in popular neighborhoods
- Potential noise from busy streets
- Unfavorable building regulations

Trade-offs

- Modern amenities vs. historical character
- Central location vs. budget constraints
- Large living space vs. proximity to cafes

Top-3 areas (shortlist)

1) Ixelles

Why: Great cafe culture around Flagey Square attracts diverse international residents. Vibrant community events and expat activities foster social connections.

Essentials to ask your Real Estate agent

- What is the total cost including taxes and fees?
- Are there any ongoing building charges or planned works?
- What is the condition of the apartment and any appliances?
- What is the timeline for completion and negotiations?
- Is there any legal compliance required for purchase?
