Client profile

Buy • 490000–895000 EUR purchase

A couple looking to buy in Brussels. Budget between 490,000 EUR and 895,000 EUR. Priorities include central access, cafes, and international community.

Must-have

- 2+ rooms for a comfortable living space.
- Proximity to cafes and brunch spots.
- Access to restaurants offering diverse cuisine.
- Central access to public transport options.

Nice-to-have

- Outdoor spaces or parks nearby.
- Vibrant local markets and shops.
- Co-working spaces for remote work flexibility.
- Easy parking availability for guests.

Red flags

- High noise levels in bustling districts.
- Potential for budget overruns during purchasing.
- Limited availability of properties in preferred areas.
- Stricter regulations affecting expat residents.

Trade-offs

- High budget may limit options in central areas.
- Preference for a vibrant area may conflict with safety requirements.

Top-3 areas (shortlist)

1) Ixelles

Why: Known for lively cafes along Place Flagey and local markets. Diverse community with easy access to transport via Public Transport.
Watch-out: Rental prices can climb quickly in trendy areas during peak seasons.

2) Saint-Gilles

Why: Offers a variety of international restaurants along Avenue Louise. Proximity to Parvis de Saint-Gilles with vibrant street life.
Watch-out: Noise from nightlife can disrupt residential peace at times.

3) Brussels City Center

Why: Central location near iconic attractions and bustling cafes. Excellent public transport links to the rest of the city.
Watch-out: High demand might escalate property prices unexpectedly.

Action plan (next 7 days)

- Confirm your top-3 areas by visiting 2 micro-anchors in each (day + evening).
- Confirm full purchase budget: taxes, notary, agency fees, renovation buffer, and monthly charges.
- Line up a trusted notary/agent and define your offer terms (conditions, timeline, financing).
